ELECTED CANDIDATE

SLIGO LEADER PARTNERSHIP COMPANY

Auriel
Robinson

Nominated by Sligo Environmental Network who state:

“We are delighted to be able to nominate Auriel Robinson as our candidate for the Board of Sligo LEADER. Auriel grew up on a farm and learnt how to sail as a child, leaving her with a great interest in nature within marine and terrestrial environments. She achieved a B.A. in Archaeology & Geography and a Master’s in Maritime Archaeology. She has fourteen years working in heritage awareness and protection in both private and public sector Archaeology. Since 2013, Auriel has run Seatrails, offering tours in Co. Sligo. She offers talks on local biodiversity, archaeology, geology & local history. In 2015, she picked up a prestigious award from Clean Coasts Ireland for her efforts on beach cleaning and marine environmental awareness. She is a Wild Atlantic Way Ambassador and Champion for Sligo and listed as a ‘Heritage Expert’ under the National Heritage in Schools programme for the Northwest.”
